Investigation No. 337-TA-565

SEIZURE AND FORFEITURE ORDER

The U.S. Bureau of Customs and Border Protection (“Customs”) has informed the Commission that (i) the owner, importer or consignee (or the agent of such person) of certain ink cartridges covered by a general exclusion order attempted to import the articles into the United States; (ii) Customs denied entry of the articles into the United States by reason of a final exclusion order; and (iii) upon such denial of entry, the Secretary of the Treasury provided the owner, importer, or consignee of the articles (or the agent of such person) with written notice of the aforesaid exclusion order and the fact that seizure and forfeiture would result from any further attempt to import the article into the United States. The Commission having determined, based on these and other documents provided by Customs, that the issuance of a seizure and forfeiture order concerning the article would be appropriate pursuant to section 337(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337(i)), it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Ink Cartridges that are imported in violation of the general exclusion order issued in the above-captioned investigation are to be seized and forfeited to the United States, if imported by the following firm: 83318.com, 1811 Almo Ave., Burley, ID 83318, or any affiliated companies, parents, subsidiaries, or other related business entities, or any of their successors or assigns.
2. The Secretary shall serve copies of this order on the Secretary of the Treasury; U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Washington, D.C.; U.S. Customs and

Border Protection, Seattle, WA 98104-1020; the firm listed in paragraph 1 above;
and counsel for the complainant in Inv. No. 337-TA-565.

SEIZURE AND FORFEITURE ORDER

The U.S. Bureau of Customs and Border Protection (“Customs”) has informed the Commission that (i) the owner, importer or consignee (or the agent of such person) of certain ink cartridges covered by a general exclusion order attempted to import the articles into the United States; (ii) Customs denied entry of the articles into the United States by reason of a final exclusion order; and (iii) upon such denial of entry, the Secretary of the Treasury provided the owner, importer, or consignee of the articles (or the agent of such person) with written notice of the aforesaid exclusion order and the fact that seizure and forfeiture would result from any further attempt to import the article into the United States. The Commission having determined, based on these and other documents provided by Customs, that the issuance of a seizure and forfeiture order concerning the article would be appropriate pursuant to section 337(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337(i)), it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Ink Cartridges that are imported in violation of the general exclusion order issued in the above-captioned investigation are to be seized and forfeited to the United States, if imported by the following firm: Michael Alfaro, 17 Clyde Road, Suite 201, Somerset, NJ 08873, or any affiliated companies, parents, subsidiaries, or other related business entities, or any of their successors or assigns.

SEIZURE AND FORFEITURE ORDER

The U.S. Bureau of Customs and Border Protection (“Customs”) has informed the Commission that (i) the owner, importer or consignee (or the agent of such person) of certain ink cartridges covered by a general exclusion order attempted to import the articles into the United States; (ii) Customs denied entry of the articles into the United States by reason of a final exclusion order; and (iii) upon such denial of entry, the Secretary of the Treasury provided the owner, importer, or consignee of the articles (or the agent of such person) with written notice of the aforesaid exclusion order and the fact that seizure and forfeiture would result from any further attempt to import the article into the United States. The Commission having determined, based on these and other documents provided by Customs, that the issuance of a seizure and forfeiture order concerning the article would be appropriate pursuant to section 337(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337(i)), it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Ink Cartridges that are imported in violation of the general exclusion order issued in the above-captioned investigation are to be seized and forfeited to the United States, if imported by the following firm: Jenny Ebert, c/o Oasis Falafel, 183 Bedford No. 1, Brooklyn, NY 11211, or any affiliated companies, parents, subsidiaries, or other related business entities, or any of their successors or assigns.
2. The Secretary shall serve copies of this order on the Secretary of the Treasury; U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Washington, D.C.; U.S. Customs and

Investigation No. 337-TA-565

SEIZURE AND FORFEITURE ORDER

The U.S. Bureau of Customs and Border Protection (“Customs”) has informed the Commission that (i) the owner, importer or consignee (or the agent of such person) of certain ink cartridges covered by a general exclusion order attempted to import the articles into the United States; (ii) Customs denied entry of the articles into the United States by reason of a final exclusion order; and (iii) upon such denial of entry, the Secretary of the Treasury provided the owner, importer, or consignee of the articles (or the agent of such person) with written notice of the aforesaid exclusion order and the fact that seizure and forfeiture would result from any further attempt to import the article into the United States. The Commission having determined, based on these and other documents provided by Customs, that the issuance of a seizure and forfeiture order concerning the article would be appropriate pursuant to section 337(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337(i)), it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Ink Cartridges that are imported in violation of the general exclusion order issued in the above-captioned investigation are to be seized and forfeited to the United States, if imported by the following firm: Jackie Miller, 10631 Keepville Road, Albion, PA 16401, or any affiliated companies, parents, subsidiaries, or other related business entities, or any of their successors or assigns.
2. The Secretary shall serve copies of this order on the Secretary of the Treasury; U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Washington, D.C.; U.S. Customs and

Border Protection, Seattle, WA 98104-1020; the firm listed in paragraph 1 above;
and counsel for the complainant in Inv. No. 337-TA-565.

The Commission having determined, based on these and other documents provided by Customs, that the issuance of a seizure and forfeiture order concerning the article would be appropriate pursuant to section 337(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337(i)), it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Ink Cartridges that are imported in violation of the general exclusion order issued in the above-captioned investigation are to be seized and forfeited to the United States, if imported by the following firm: Tammy Turner, 200 E. Center St., Glenwood, IL 60425, or any affiliated companies, parents, subsidiaries, or other related business entities, or any of their successors or assigns.
2. The Secretary shall serve copies of this order on the Secretary of the Treasury; U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Washington, D.C.; U.S. Customs and

Border Protection, Seattle, WA 98104-1020; the firm listed in paragraph 1 above;
and counsel for the complainant in Inv. No. 337-TA-565.

For the Commission.

SEIZURE AND FORFEITURE ORDER

The U.S. Bureau of Customs and Border Protection (“Customs”) has informed the Commission that (i) the owner, importer or consignee (or the agent of such person) of certain ink cartridges covered by a general exclusion order attempted to import the articles into the United States; (ii) Customs denied entry of the articles into the United States by reason of a final exclusion order; and (iii) upon such denial of entry, the Secretary of the Treasury provided the owner, importer, or consignee of the articles (or the agent of such person) with written notice of the aforesaid exclusion order and the fact that seizure and forfeiture would result from any further attempt to import the article into the United States. The Commission having determined, based on these and other documents provided by Customs, that the issuance of a seizure and forfeiture order concerning the article would be appropriate pursuant to section 337(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337(i)), it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Ink Cartridges that are imported in violation of the general exclusion order issued in the above-captioned investigation are to be seized and forfeited to the United States, if imported by the following firm: Louise Urban, 36800 Bainbridge Rd., Solon, OH 44139, or any affiliated companies, parents, subsidiaries, or other related business entities, or any of their successors or assigns.
2. The Secretary shall serve copies of this order on the Secretary of the Treasury; U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Washington, D.C.; U.S. Customs and

Border Protection, Seattle, WA 98104-1020; the firm listed in paragraph 1 above;
and counsel for the complainant in Inv. No. 337-TA-565.

For the Commission.
